CIVIL RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

RULE 2.01

CIVIL CASE MANAGEMENT PLAN

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this rule is to establish, pursuant to Rule 5 of the Rules of Superintendence for Courts of Ohio, an automated system for civil case management which will achieve the prompt and fair disposition of civil cases, provide the Court with an efficient means of controlling the flow of civil cases, and save time by providing members of the bar with information and case management facilities.

II. SCHEDULING OF EVENTS

The scheduling of events begins when a civil action is filed. The case is managed in three steps.

III. STEP ONE

Service of summons, in accordance with Rule 4.1-4.6 of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, is checked 21 days after the action is filed.

- A. If service is complete on all parties and the case is an administrative appeal, appellant shall cause the proper notice, transcripts and information to be filed with the Clerk pursuant to the applicable provision of Rule 2.37 and the Ohio Revised Code.
- B. All cases, other than administrative appeals, go to Step Two when all returns of service are filed and service is complete.
- C. If there is no return of service, Step One is repeated every 14 days until all returns are filed.
- D. If service is being accomplished by publication, then:

1. After the last publication, the publisher or agent shall file with the Court:
- a. an affidavit showing publication was made, and
 - b. a copy of the notice of publication. The affidavit and copy of the notice shall together constitute proof of service.
2. 28 days after the last publication, the case shall go to Step Two.
- E. Failure to make service shall be addressed in accordance with Ohio Rule of Civil Procedure 4(E).

IV. STEP TWO

This step assumes that service upon all defendants is complete.

A. After all party defendants have filed an answer, the parties must contact the Court so the Court may set a scheduling conference of which counsel of record shall be notified. This scheduling conference shall be conducted by telephone, unless otherwise ordered.

Attorneys who will be participating at trial are required to participate and their calendars should be up-to-date in order to set future trial-related dates. It is not necessary for the clients to participate.

In each non-jury case, the Judge shall determine whether the case is to be tried by the Judge or referred to a Magistrate. In either event, the trial date and all other intervening events may be scheduled. Cutoff dates for case management may also be set.

B. If no answer has been filed and no action has been taken by plaintiff's attorney within thirty (30) days of the completion of service, notice may be served on plaintiff's attorney, by the Court, to either proceed with default judgment or the action will be dismissed by the Court. If neither action has been taken after fourteen (14) days, the action may be dismissed.

C. If an extension to plead has been filed and the motion has been granted, the action shall be recycled to the beginning of Step Two at the end of the extension period.

V. STEP THREE

At the final pretrial conference, the judge may, among other inquiries, determine the status of the case with reference to settlement. All parties with settlement authority are required to be present unless the Judge or Magistrate agrees to make an exception, whereby a party may be available by phone. Failure of the required parties to be present may result in the dismissal of the action without prejudice.

A. Trial counsel should consult with their clients in advance of the conference and be prepared to confer practically and earnestly on all matters as may aid in the disposition of the action. All parties with settlement authority are required to be present unless the judge or magistrate agrees to allow the party to be present by telephone or otherwise.

B. Settled Cases

Counsel shall notify the Court if a case is settled. Upon such notification, the Court may enter and file a Judgment Entry in conformance with Exhibit "C." In any event, Counsel shall present a termination entry for approval within thirty (30) days.

C. Bankruptcy

If any party files a proceeding in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court which results in a stay of this Court's proceedings, counsel shall file with the Court a notice of bankruptcy and submit a proposed order staying proceedings as provided by the provisions of 11 U.S.C. 362. Counsel shall immediately notify the Court of any action of the Bankruptcy Court which would permit the Court to proceed with the case.

D. Continuances

1. The Court shall not grant a motion for continuance of a trial date without the motion being in writing, stating the reason for the continuance and endorsed in writing by the client. Counsel shall provide the Court with an entry granting the motion and reassigning the matter for a date and time when all counsel are available. The Court shall not grant a continuance without rescheduling.

2. When a continuance is requested for the reason that the attorney is scheduled to appear in another case assigned for trial on the same date, the case that was first assigned shall have priority. However, criminal cases assigned for trial shall have priority over civil cases assigned for trial. A copy of the trial assignment must be attached to the motion in order for the motion to be considered.

The record owner(s) of the real estate shall be noticed by mail in all cases whether or not in default for failure to appear, except when said owner(s) were originally served with summons solely by publication. No other parties to the proceeding in default of answer need be served with notice of sale except by publication as provided by Sections 2329.26 and 2329.27 of the Ohio Revised Code. A. No compensation shall be allowed to a receiver or the receiver's counsel except upon written application describing the services rendered, the time required, the amount requested for each and the amounts previously received. The Court may fix the time for hearing and determine the nature of the notice to creditors of the application.

B. Except in operating receiverships where an account has been filed monthly, no compensation shall be paid to or accepted by counsel or the receiver unless the rules have been followed and the final verified account is filed or submitted to the Court for filing; however, in liquidating receiverships requiring more than one year to liquidate, one third of the probable total fees may be allowed and paid. A violation of this rule will subject the offender to discipline, removal and forfeiture of compensation as determined by the Court. Total allowances to both receiver and the receiver's counsel shall not exceed fifteen (15) percent of the receipts in liquidating receiverships, except where extraordinary services have been authorized by the Court. When fees in excess of fifteen (15) percent are requested for extraordinary services, the receiver shall mail to all known creditors and/or shareholders, if any, a notice of the hearing on the application, the nature of the request, and the date and place of the hearing.

If the receiver fails to qualify and give bond, the appointment is voidable.

D. Duties Of Receivers

B. A record shall be made of all proceedings before a magistrate with the exception of arbitrations.

Objections shall be specific and state with particularity the grounds for the objections, referring to the transcript and evidence when applicable.

VII. TRANSCRIPTS

Any objection to a finding of fact in the Magistrate's decision shall be supported by a transcript of all the evidence submitted to the Magistrate relevant to that fact or an affidavit of that evidence if a transcript is not available. A transcript must be filed with the Court by the moving party within thirty (30) days after the filing of objections to the Magistrate's decision unless the Magistrate, in writing, extends the time for inability of the reporter to complete the transcript of the testimony, or, upon motion, waives the requirement for filing a transcript.

The request for a transcript shall be submitted to the proper court reporter within three (3) days after filing of objections.

VIII. FINAL ENTRIES

If no objections to the Magistrate's decision are filed pursuant to Section V of this rule, the Magistrate shall prepare the judgment entry and submit the same to the Court for approval.

FORECLOSURE MEDIATION PROGRAM

I. PURPOSE

The Foreclosure Mediation Program was established to provide litigants with an alternative forum in which to resolve their lawsuits. Through the flexible and private process of third party facilitated negotiation, parties and counsel explore collaborative problem solving in an attempt to reach mutually beneficial agreements without expending the significant time and resources often associated with civil litigation. The Mediator assists the participants in framing the issues involved in the dispute, encouraging candor and communication during the negotiations, and tailoring settlement options to the specific needs and interests of the parties.

II. REFERRAL TO MEDIATION

A. Eligibility. All foreclosure cases filed in the Court of Common Pleas, General Division are eligible for referral to the Foreclosure Mediation Program. The assigned Judge or Magistrate may refer a case to mediation any time prior to trial on the Court's own motion, on a party's request, or by agreement of the parties. For all cases referred to mediation, the assigned Judge or Magistrate may continue to manage the case by scheduling pre-trial conferences and trial dates, establishing appropriate deadlines, and handling discovery issues and pre-trial motions.

B. A "Request for Mediation" form will be served with the complaint in all new foreclosure actions. On this form a party may indicate whether or not they are interested in mediation and return the form to the Clark County Clerk of Courts. The Clerk shall then forward the request to the assigned judge for review. Said form is attached as Exhibit "F".

C. Cost. The order referring a case to mediation shall set forth the cost of the mediation to each party, which will be $200.00 to be shared equally by the parties. D. Disclosures. Pursuant to R.C. Section 2710.08, the Mediator shall make an inquiry that is reasonable under the circumstances to determine whether there are any known facts that a reasonable individual would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the Court Mediator and shall disclose any such known facts to the parties as soon as practicable. Upon request, the Mediator's qualifications to mediate the dispute shall also be disclosed.

All parties not represented by counsel are encouraged to contact the Bar Association for information about referrals to legal counsel and/or other support services.

III. SCHEDULING OF MEDIATION

A. Mediation Telephone Conference. A mediation telephone status and scheduling conference shall be scheduled to take place within thirty (30) days from the date of the Court's Order of Referral to Mediation. During this telephone conference, the Mediator and trial counsel or parties shall review the case to determine the appropriate time to schedule the initial in-house mediation conference. Any and all relevant procedural and substantive legal matters and/or discovery issues involved in the case may be discussed during this telephone conference in order to make this assessment.

B. Initial Mediation Conference. The initial mediation conference shall be scheduled to take place at a time chosen by the Mediator after consultation with trial counsel, but not later than ninety (90) days prior to the trial date. In preparation for the initial mediation conference, trial counsel shall complete a Mediation Case Summary and submit it to the Court Mediator and opposing counsel at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled mediation; however, it should not be filed with Clerk of Courts. The Mediation Case Summary should include the following items: material facts; legal issues; damages; prior settlement discussions; position of the parties; and any other information the parties reasonably request including financial disclosures.

C. Attendance. Trial counsel, parties, and party representatives with complete authority to negotiate and settle the case are required to personally attend all mediation conferences, unless excused by the Mediator. If a party or party representative wants to attend the mediation via telephone participation, counsel shall obtain prior approval by the Mediator. It is within the sole discretion of the Court Mediator whether or not to grant telephone participation by a party or party representative.

IV. MEDIATION DOCKET MANAGEMENT

A. Authority of Mediator. The Mediator shall at all times be in control of the mediation process, including scheduling and the procedures to be followed, and may meet privately in caucus to consult with any party, party representative, and/or trial counsel.

B. Status of Mediation. The Court Mediator shall prepare and file a Status of Mediation form after each mediation to inform the Court of the status of the referred case. This form shall indicate: whether the parties have reached an agreement; when counsel will dismiss a settled case; the scheduled time and date of any subsequent mediation conference; those who attended or failed to attend the mediation; that mediation is terminated because the parties have reached an impasse; and/or any other permitted disclosure as provided in R.C. Section 2710.06. The mediator shall file said "Status of Mediation" form(s) contemporaneously with the Clerk of Courts.

C. Dismissal Entry. If an agreement is reached in mediation, trial counsel and the Mediator may prepare a written Mediation Agreement memorializing the settlement for the parties to execute. The Mediation Agreement should indicate when the dismissal entry will be filed and how court costs will be allocated between the parties. If the settled case is not dismissed by counsel within the allotted time period, the Mediation Agreement shall be filed with the Clerk of Courts and made an order of this Court. In that event, the settled case shall be administratively dismissed with prejudice by the Court, and unless otherwise provided in the Mediation Agreement, Court costs shall be allocated equally between the parties. Again, this written "Mediation Agreement" shall be contemporaneously filed with the Clerk of Courts.

V. GOOD FAITH AND IMMUNITY

All parties and trial counsel are expected to participate in the mediation process in good faith. Failure to attend a mediation conference or to make a good faith effort to participate in mediation may result in sanctions being imposed by the Court, including contempt, an award of attorneys' fees and costs, or any other appropriate sanction. The Mediator acting pursuant to this Rule shall have all the immunity conferred by statute, rule, and/or common law.

VI. CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVILEGE

Pursuant to R.C. Section 2710.03, and except as otherwise provided in R.C. Section 2710.05, all statements and communications, whether oral, written, verbal, or nonverbal,
